

The American Cancer Society's Rising Star in Oncology Social Work Award

This award is sponsored by the American Cancer Society and serves to encourage the recipient's ongoing and future development in the field of oncology social work.

Some of the characteristics of the American Cancer Society's Rising Star in Oncology Social Work nominee (the candidate does NOT have to meet all these characteristics):

- Professionalism, integrity, and commitment to oncology social work.
- Recently entered the field (less than 5 years) or graduating student of the field and has demonstrated exemplary leadership, expertise, education, and dedication to the profession.
- Great potential to impact the field of oncology of social work and has made major strides in advancing and impacting social work in oncology.
- Creative, compassionate, and goes above and beyond in their community.
- Fully embody social work values and ethics and exemplifies the very best in the field.
- Leader in their profession and in their community.
- Has made valuable contributions to oncology social work, promoting and advocating for the values of social work in the area of public service.
- Demonstrated commitment to the goals and activities of FSOSW through active participation in the organization, if applicable
- Support and promote American Cancer Society services and programs with individual patients and in the community.

I nominate the following candidate for the 2023 Rising Star in Oncology Social Work Award

Candidate Name: _____

Credentials/Degree: _____

Title: _____

Institution: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Description of Current Position:

Years in Position: _____ Years in Oncology Social Work: _____

Background in Oncology Social Work:

FSOSW Member since (if applicable): _____

FSOSW Activities (if applicable):

To submit this application:

- Please provide a written statement addressing any relevant characteristics of the nominee (listed above, not inclusive) and any other qualities which make him/her uniquely qualified to receive this award.
- Provide a written statement addressing the above characteristics and reason for nomination.
- Provide one letter of reference from a professional, administrator, and/or colleague.
- Include the candidate's resume.
- Email the nomination packet to tammy.semelsberger@cancer.org

Nomination submitted by:

Name: _____ Date: _____

Institution: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____